PROFESSIONAL OR AMATEUR ... NEED HELP CHOOSING YOUR DIVISION?

The International Powerlifting Association (IPA) is an organization established as a "Lifters for Lifters" organization with three divisions (both equipped and unequipped): Professional (Pro), Elite Amateur and Amateur (Am). Qualification for these divisions is as follows:

Raw Pro Division: Anyone totaling a Raw Professional (Pro) total is entered into this division. Standard lifting rules apply, but the division is open to anyone who wants to enter as a Professional, no matter what he or she totals. There is no drug testing in this division. The Raw Pro Division has its own world records. Pro Raw records will be kept in the Men's and Women's Junior (20-23), Open, Submaster, and Master Divisions only. There is no Teenage subdivision in the Raw Pro Division.

Raw Amateur (Am) Division: This division is a strict drug-free division. Any lifter under suspicion of drug use will be tested by means of urinalysis (same standards as the U.S. Olympic Committee). If the test is negative, the meet director absorbs the cost of the drug test. If the test results are positive, the lifter is responsible for all expenses associated with the drug test, and all of the lifter's records and accomplishments to date will be disqualified. A lifter testing positive will be permanently banned from lifting in the Raw Am Division. If the lifter enters the Raw Am Division and accomplishes a Raw Pro total, the lifter will be classified as a Raw Amateur in the meet he/she totals pro, but must compete in the Raw Pro division in any future IPA meets. The Raw Amateur Division has its own world records. Raw Amateur records will be kept in the Men's and Women's Teen (14-15, 16-17, 18-19), Junior (20-23), Open, Submaster, Master, and Police Divisions.

Raw Elite Amateur Division: The Elite Amateur Division is a drug free division. To qualify, the lifter must have a Raw Pro total. Every athlete is tested by method of urinalysis, and the lifter pays for his/her own drug test.

Raw Equipment: This division requires that lifters use no supportive equipment except wrist wraps and a belt. A one-piece, non-supportive singlet must be worn.
