PROFESSIONAL OR AMATEUR ... NEED HELP CHOOSING YOUR DIVISION?

The International Powerlifting Association (IPA) is an organization established as a "Lifters for Lifters" organization with three divisions, Professional (Pro), Elite Amateur and Amateur (Am). Qualification for these divisions is as follows:

Pro Division: Anyone who totals Professional (Pro) is entered into this division. Standard lifting rules apply, but the division is open to anyone who wants to enter as a Professional, no matter what he or she totals. There is no drug testing in this division. The Pro Division has its own world records. Records will be kept in the Men, Women, Junior, Open, Submaster, Raw, and Master Divisions only. There is not a Teenage or a Special Olympian Division in the Pro Division.

Amateur (Am) Division: This division is a very strict drug-free division. Any lifter under suspicion of drug use will be required to have a urinalysis test (same standards as the U.S. Olympic Committee). If the test is negative, the meet director will absorb the cost of the drug test. If the test results are positive, the lifter will be responsible for all expenses associated with the drug test, and all of the lifter's records and accomplishments to date will be considered disqualified. A lifter testing positive will be permanently banned from lifting in the Am Division. If the lifter enters the Am Division and totals a Pro total, the lifter will be classified as an Amateur in the meet he/she totals pro, but must compete in the Pro division in any subsequent IPA meets. The Amateur Division has its own elite and world records. Amateur records will be kept in the Men's, Women's, Teen (14-15, 16-17, 18-19), Junior (20-23), Open, Submaster, Raw, Master, Police, and Special Olympian Divisions.

Elite Amateur Division: This division is considered Amateur in that it is a completely drug free division. To qualify, the lifter must have a Pro total. Every athlete is tested by method of urinalysis, and the lifter pays for his/her own drug test.

Raw Lifting: This division requires that lifters use no equipment except wrist wraps and a belt.
