In accordance with the by-laws of the IPA, the meet director/s accept the responsibility of providing a meet that is in accordance with the requirements detailed above. The meet director, or one of his agents, will be available to assist with the on-site logistics of the meet. Those not complying with the rules of the IPA will receive a verbal warning. If continued actions persist, the person/s will be asked to leave the meet site. Further actions can mean suspension or expulsion from the Association.

The IPA home office will provide, at the meet director's request, a valid and up-to-date list of all members and judges from which the meet director can draw from. For all major meets, the CEO will appoint a coordinator of judges to set-up a rotation for that meet. The home office will also provide the names of any sponsors who might wish to be involved with the meet.
